Dr. Kishore Kuncham, Superintendent of Schools, started off the meeting by wishing everyone a very Happy New Year. He also remarked that out of 125 School Districts, Freeport Students were invited to attend the State of the State address. In addition, members of the Freeport High School Select Choral were invited to sing the National Anthem at Governor Andrew Cuomo's State of the State address. The Select Choral was very well received.

The Superintendent indicated that the Governor has until January 17, 2017 to release his budget for the coming year. In his address to the public, Governor Cuomo did not mention education. He did talk about his plan to make all State Colleges and University's tuition free. He spoke about keeping expenditures down and cutting down on the duplication of services.

The Superintendent went on to inform everyone of upcoming workshops for parents on various topics. In February, a Parent University is planned at Caroline G. Atkinson School. In addition, former New York First Lady, Matilda Cuomo will be back in Freeport to promote mentors and to promote the training of future mentors. In March, Freeport will be hosting the Odyssey of the Mind completion.

Dr. Kuncham informed everyone that there are new Science and Social Studies Standards. He introduced Mr. Gerard Poole, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction

Mr. Poole gave a power point presentation on the new Social Studies and Science standards as well as information on the new "Seal of Bi-Literacy". (attached)

The Superintendent thanked Mr. Poole for the presentation. Dr. Kuncham also remarked that he had recently heard from a Suffolk County Legislator, Leslie Kennedy. She heard our Select Choral at the State of the State Address and was deeply touched by their wonderful performance.
