The number of people in the audience at the opening of the meeting was 63.

Superintendent's Report

- The Superintendent welcomed everyone to the meeting. He then introduced Mr. John O'Mard, Principal of John W. Dodd Middle School. Mr. O'Mard introduced Mr. Adam Rubin of "Blues Walk" Mr. Rubin conducted the Dodd Jazz Combo in a musical presentation which everyone enjoyed.

High School Student Government Presentation

- Six students from Freeport High School each thanked the Board and Administration for their support and gave a brief update on the activities and upcoming events at Freeport High School. The presenters were: Kayla Cruz, Brittany Spell, Kianna Berria-Anderson, Victoria Mulé, Kim Hernandez and Ruby Escalera-Nater.

Unsung Heroes Recognition

- Mr. John O'Mard, recognized Mr. Donald Robinson as the "Unsung Hero" for John W. Dodd Middle School. Mr. Robinson works for Freeport Pride and is a role model for our students, especially Dodd's at-risk students.

Dr. Kuncham then shared the following:

- The next FHS Football game, to determine the Nassau County Champions, would be Thursday, November 18, 2010
- The Boys' Soccer team won the Conference I Sportsmanship Award and German Banegas was named Conference I Coach of the Year.
- Our Girls' Varsity Soccer team won the Nassau County Sportsmanship Award from the Girls' Soccer Officials Association.
- New Visions' Project Challenge Grade 4 students, along with their teacher Dr. Marie Codispoti, visited the Cradle of Aviation Museum and spent some time with Astronauts Bill Shepherd and Mary Cleave.
- On Friday, December 17, 2010, New Visions will join with the Cradle of Aviation for a "Discovery Day" fit for the stars. Our students will travel to the Cradle of Aviation Museum for an interactive day of museum galleries, workstations, artifact explorations.
- Christine Meloni, the Librarian at Dodd, has published a book called Teen Chick Lit: A Guide to Reading Interests. Christine has also most recently published in the professional journals below:
"A Night to Remember" VOYA, Voice of Youth Advocates
"Chickalicious" School Library Journal
- Larry Levy will continue the $15,000 scholarship incentive for 2010-2011. Mr. Levy provided this scholarship last year to our Freeport High School graduates.
- The Employee of the Month for November is Deborah LaCorte, a teacher at the Archer Street School. Ms. LaCorte was selected by Archer Street School employees because she best exemplifies the November theme of "Promoting Teamwork."
- The Dodd Middle School Select Chorale students, under the leadership of Sherill Spruill (Dodd Select Chorus Teacher), have been selected to perform at Radio City Music Hall in December.
- On Tuesday, November 9, 2010, the District held its first Student Mentoring kick off meeting. Special thanks to Dr. Bediako for coordinating this important initiative.
- 104 students were inducted into the Freeport High School Honor Society. This is the largest number of students to receive this honor in recent memory. Congratulations to our students!
